Vincent Leoni is a partner with Miller Kaplan in Los Angeles and is the partner in charge of the firm's Licensing & Royalties / Contract Compliance practice. He has more than 30 years of experience providing entertainment consulting, royalty/contract compliance, and profit participation examinations. Vincent performs these services on behalf of licensors, owners of intellectual property, film studios, production companies, recording artists, music publishers, profit participants, and software developers.

In addition to his work in the US, Vincent has traveled extensively throughout the world, performing a number of licensee exams on behalf of major trademark licensors in Asia, Europe, and Australia. Vincent has provided litigation support services on behalf of profit participants and licensors, and on multiple occasions has analyzed income streams in order to determine damages and the appropriate share of profits, revenues, and royalties due to participants. He has also been called upon to serve as an expert witness testifying in the Superior Court of the State of California.
